CONFERENCE SCOPE

The ESR2007 conference will focus on theoretical and experimental aspects of Electron Spin Resonance, as well as its applications to physical, chemical, biological and medical problems.

ORGANISING COMMITTEE

C. R. Timmel (Organizer, Oxford, UK); C. W. M. Kay (Secretary, UCL, London); V. Chechik (Treasurer, York, UK); S. A. Fairhurst (Chairperson, Norwich, UK).

LOCATION

Oxford is about 60 miles (90 km) north-west of London. Accommodation and meals will be in New College, Oxford University, located in the centre of the City. Lectures will be held in the Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory, Oxford University, which is a five-minute walk from the New College.

A Virtual Reality Tour of Oxford University is available on the web, showing New College and the Inorganic Chemistry Laboratory. Instructions on getting to Oxford are also available.

INVITED SPEAKERS

We are pleased to welcome, amongst many others, Klaus Möbius, Jack Freed, Jan Schmidt, Dante Gatteschi, Jürgen Hütterman, Sandra Eaton, Gareth Eaton, Wolfgang Lubitz, Klaus-Peter Dinse and Brian Hoffmann as invited speakers, and Thomas Prisner, Frank Neese and Graham Smith as keynote lecturers. For an updated list of those who have accepted invitations to speak at the conference, see the speaker section of the conference web site.

BRUKER LECTURER

It is with great pleasure that we announce Professor Daniella Goldfarb (Weizmann Institute, Israel) as the 2007 Bruker Lecturer. The Bruker Lecture will take place on Tuesday 27th March.

JEOL PRIZE TALK

2nd and 3rd year graduate students as well as 1st year postdoctoral researchers are encouraged to present a 20-minute talk in the JEOL session. Abstracts should be submitted via the conference web-site (dead-line to be announced on the conference web site).

PUBLICATION OF CONFERENCE PROCEEDINGS

The Editorial Board of Molecular Physics has agreed to publish peer-reviewed papers from the Conference as a special issue of the Journal, edited by T.P. Softley (Oxford, UK) together with C.W.M Kay (UCL, UK) and C. R. Timmel (Oxford, UK). All participants are encouraged to submit papers.

REGISTRATION

Participants are encouraged to register as soon as possible via the conference web-site. Payment of conference fees and board and lodging charges can be made from 15 November.

CALL FOR ORAL CONTRIBUTIONS AND POSTERS

There will be space in the conference programme for a limited number of contributed talks. Participants are cordially invited to submit abstracts, via the conference web-site as soon as possible and in any event no later than 15 January. Invited speakers should submit abstracts for their talks by the same date. Participants who would like to be considered for such presentations should submit their poster abstracts by 15 January. The poster session will be after lunch on Wednesday 28 March.

BOARD AND LODGING

Conference accommodation will be in New College. Most of the rooms are single en-suite. Some non en-suite and double rooms are available and will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis, with preference given to invited speakers. All meals will be in the New College.

FEES AND CHARGES

Conference fees and charges for board and lodging at the New College are as set out below. Payments should be made via the conference web site. Payments received after 15 January will be subject to a £50 surcharge. In the event of cancellation before 15 January, payments will be refunded, less £50. The Organisers regret that no refunds are possible after 15 January.
